Request for approval as a nominee of a bingo centre operator

Nomination – Bingo Centre Operator’s Licence

Gambling Regulation Act 2003

BACKGROUND

Under section 8.5.9 of the Gambling Regulation Act 2003 (the Act), if a Bingo Centre Operator’s Licence is granted to a body corporate, the body corporate must nominate a natural person to be approved by the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (the VCGLR) to be responsible as licensee on behalf of the body corporate. A person nominated and approved as a nominee is liable under the Act as licensee in respect of that approved bingo centre.

Please note that, where a body corporate fails to nominate a natural person to be the nominee of an approved bingo centre, the directors of the body corporate are severally liable under the Act as licensee until such time as a natural person is nominated and approved by the VCGLR.

Similarly, where the nominee has ceased to be responsible as licensee in respect of an approved bingo centre, the body corporate must nominate a new nominee for approval by the VCGLR. If a nominee is dismissed or resigns before VCGLR approval is obtained for a new nominee, the directors of the body corporate are severally liable under the Act as licensee until such time as a new nominee is approved by the VCGLR.

When must a nomination under section 8.5.9 of the Act be completed?

The following are the circumstances requiring the completion of the nomination under section 8.5.9 of the Act, with respect to each approved bingo centre:

- when an application is made for a Bingo Centre Operator’s Licence; or
- when a new nominee is required to replace a former nominee (e.g. as a result of the resignation or dismissal of a nominee or if the previous nominee has ceased to be responsible as licensee in respect of an approved bingo centre).

NOTE:

This attachment page is provided for additional information that requires more space than that provided in the original question. Precede your entry with the question number and title to which the additional information relates.

Please copy if additional attachment pages are required.

Have you used an additional attachment page to provide any further information? YES NO

General Information

Are you required to notify changes following determination of your application?

If approval is granted, you will also be given a set of Directions which give you an ongoing responsibility to notify the VCGLR of specified changes in your situation. Whenever a specified change takes place, you must give written notice to the VCGLR within 14 days of the change taking place. If you do not notify the VCGLR of a specified change, disciplinary action may be taken against you and/or you may be prosecuted and fined up to 60 penalty units.

When must a nominee be proposed?

A natural person must be nominated as nominee within 60 days, or any longer period allowed by the VCGLR, after a licensee is notified that it has been granted a licence.

How long does the consideration process take for nominee approval?

Investigation and approval of a proposed nominee takes approximately the same time as it does to approve a Bingo Centre Operator's Licence.

What if a bingo centre operator doesn't nominate a nominee or the nominee resigns?

If a bingo centre operator fails to nominate an individual as nominee (or if the nominee has resigned, been dismissed) the directors or committee members of the body corporate/managing committee of the club are each individually responsible and liable under the Act as licensee until such a time as an individual is nominated and approved by the VCGLR.

How long does an approval last?

The approval of a nominee lasts for the life of the current Bingo Centre Operator's Licence (approval may be affected if disciplinary action is required). An approved nominee may, within the life of the current Bingo Centre Operator's Licence, be nominated with respect to more than one approved bingo centre. In this circumstance each nomination requires a section 8.5.9 nomination form to identify the approved nominee for each approved bingo centre.

What is a Nominee Identification Card?

Following approval as a nominee you will receive a Nominee Identification Card. While wearing this card so that it is visible to other people you are allowed to perform any function of a gaming industry employee in relation to the bingo centre of which you are nominee. For your information, the functions of a gaming industry employee are detailed below. You must surrender this card to the VCGLR if you cease to be a nominee.

Functions of a gaming industry employee in a bingo centre

The prescribed functions of a gaming industry employee in a bingo centre are:

- (a) selling bingo tickets;
- (b) writing up running sheets;
- (c) checking back numbers on bingo tickets;
- (d) paying prizes;
- (e) supervising persons performing any of the functions referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d).

Attachment 1 – National Police Certificate

Requirement to obtain a National Police certificate

If you live in Australia or have lived in Australia for at least 12 months during the last 10 years, you are required to obtain a National Police certificate (NPC) from Victoria Police as part of your application to the VCGLR. Please note that Victoria Police requires approximately 20 working days to issue a NPC.

Important information

It is important that you follow the instructions on how to apply for a NPC so that it meets the VCGLR's requirements. Your NPC must show the following information:

1. That it was issued by Victoria Police or by the Australian Federal Police.
2. Type of check:
 - National name check.
3. Reason for the check: Casino or gaming licence.

5. That it is an original document and not a photocopy or certified photocopy.
6. That it is current and no more than three months old when you submit your application.

Application fees

Victoria Police charges a fee to apply for a NPC. For the current fee that applies to your application, go to www.police.vic.gov.au and search for 'National Police Certificate'.

Disclosures

All matters detailed on your NPC will be taken into consideration by the VCGLR when making an assessment of your character, honesty and integrity. Should you wish to dispute any of the information disclosed in your NPC, you should do so prior to submitting your application to the VCGLR by writing to the:

Manager, Public Enquiry Service

Records Services Division, Victoria Police

GPO Box 919, Melbourne, Victoria 3001

¹ Preferred first name: Your identity card will, by default, have your first name at the front of the card. However, you may opt to use your anglicised name or your commonly known name at the front. If your preferred name is not exactly the same as your first name your NPC must include that name. For example if your first name is Joseph and your preferred name is Joe, you must state both names on your NPC application and have both names shown on your NPC.

- person's name and birth details
- companies against which the person's name is recorded, number and current status
- role(s)* held and residential address
- date appointed and date ceased, where applicable.

* The roles identified in a personal name search include:

- | | | |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------|
| • Administrator | • Local Agents | • Receiver |
| • Appointed Auditor | • Member of a Futures Exchange | • Representative |
| • Appointed Liquidator | • Official Manager | • Representative Futures |
| • Deputy Official Manager | • Petitioner Court Action | • Scheme Manager |
| • Director | • Provisional Liquidator | • Secretary |

When making your search application to ASIC, ensure that you specify that you require an Historical Personal Name Extract and not a Current Personal Name Extract. An Historical Personal Name Extract identifies both current and historical roles held by you in organisations registered with ASIC, while the Current Extract identifies only current roles. If your associate form is lodged with an extract other than an Historical Personal Name Extract it will be considered incomplete and will be returned to you to be re-lodged when you have obtained the correct extract. Note: If you are not recorded on ASIC's database you will be provided with a letter to that effect.

If the Historical Personal Name Extract you provide fails to meet any of the following requirements your associate form will be considered incomplete and will be returned to you –

- an Historical Personal Name Extract rather than a Current Personal Name Extract must be lodged; and
- it must not be dated more than three (3) months from the date your application is lodged.

All matters detailed on your Historical Personal Name Extract may be taken into consideration by the VCGLR. Should you wish to dispute any of the information disclosed in your Historical Personal Name Extract you should do so with ASIC prior to lodging your associate form.

Fees

Fees are payable for searching ASIC databases. ASIC fees for on-line/telephone searches through brokers may differ from the fees charged at an ASIC Business Centre. Information brokers, however, may charge a service delivery fee in addition to the ASIC fee. The delivery fee may vary between brokers. ASIC does not regulate the amount of the broker delivery fees. ASIC can advise you of the cost of obtaining the Extract.

How to apply for your Historical Personal Name Extract

An Historical Personal Name Extract can be obtained from ASIC. You may also contact ASIC's Infoline or refer to the ASIC website to obtain details of regional ASIC Business Centres and ASIC Representatives or Information Brokers.
